NHS 111

For 'out of hours' medical advice 24 hours a day, 365 days a year call 111. Calls are free from landlines and mobile phones. You can call 111 when you need medical help fast but it is not a 999 emergency. A trained adviser will ask questions to find out what is wrong, give you medical advice and direct you to someone who can help you, for example, an out-of-hours doctor or community nurse.

You can call 111 from anywhere in England if you urgently need medical help or advice but it's not a life-threatening situation. You can call 111 if you don't know who to call or you don't have a GP to call or you need health information or reassurance about what to do next. For less urgent health needs, contact your surgery or local pharmacist.

NB This service replaces NHS Direct .
